

Volume Change in Local Anesthetic Cartridges (4/06)

DECS recently learned that several manufacturers are now labeling their single-dose local anesthetic cartridges as containing 1.7 mL of solution instead of 1.8 mL. Dental providers should review the products that they are using and be aware of this volume change.

