

DECS Public Website IS Moving! (3/12)

As of 1 April 2013, the airforcemedicine public website site which the DECS Public Website falls under will no longer exist. Per the AF Public Affairs Agency (AFPAA) guidance, AFI 35-107, Public Web Communication (<http://www.e-publishing.af.mil/shared/media/epubs/AFI35-107.pdf>), guidance for public web sites has changed the need for the airforcemedicine.afms.mil site. Using the new guidance for site consolidation, organizations requiring a public site will need to transfer their public content from airforcemedicine.afms.mil to the Air Force Public Information Management System (AFPIMS) as the official AF Public Affairs system for public websites.

Since the DECS public site is managed by the airforcemedicine.afms.mil site, it will be moving to the AFMS (www.afms.af.mil) public site, which is managed by AFPIMS by 1 Apr 2013. This transition requires DECS to create a whole new public site in a very short period of time. Once the site is up and running by 1 April 2013, there may be a couple hiccups that will need fine tuning, so we ask for your patience during this transition time. As always, we are here to serve and are working very diligently to make this as seamless as possible. Thank you. Your DECS Team.
